

WILL NOT DO MUCH.

Nothing Expected of Congress This Week.

MANY MEMBERS ABSENT.

A Number of Senators and Congressmen Will Attend the Chicago Convention and No Important Measures Will Be Acted Upon.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Congress is likely to spend another apathetic week unless the house again breaks forth into a frenzy of legislation and puts through other measures as important as those last Monday. But the chances are that this will not occur in the absence of warrant by the rules, no general suspension day occurring.

Last Monday was set apart by the rules as a day for passing bills under suspension, but another suspension day will not occur until Monday. However, it can not be predicted with certainty what the house may do. So many Democratic members will be absent at the Chicago convention that it will not be safe for the Democrats to attempt any important legislation.

The agreement made between the leaders of the two great parties in both houses not to press to a vote any of the tariff bills or the silver bill, will continue until after the Democratic convention. The return of Republican senators will give the senate an opportunity of doing some work, but it is probable the entire week in that body will be devoted to the consideration offered by Mr. Vest, directing the discharge of the committee on finance from further consideration of the free wool bill and also to debate on Mr. Stewart's free coinage. Mr. Morgan will make some remarks on the silver bill, and other senators will address the senate on that measure and on Mr. Vest's resolution.

Ohio Democrats.

COLUMBUS, O., June 13.—The Democratic state convention which meets here tomorrow, will probably be controlled by the Cleveland-Campbell delegates, with James E. Neal, of Hamilton, as permanent chairman. For delegates-at-large to Chicago it is now quite certain that Brice, Campbell and probably Thurman will be selected with a number of candidates for the fourth place. The convention will nominate candidates for secretary of state, two judges of the supreme court, clerk of the supreme court, and member of the board of public works. An effort will be made to pledge the delegates to Cleveland.

Deserted Children Cared For.

NEWARK, June 13.—Two small children were taken to the police station last night, they had been without sufficient food for several days. Their names are Maggie and Conrad Bittwig and their mother had left the house with a boarder ten days ago, and not yet returned. The father, Gottfried, had been in jail several months but was released a week ago, and when he found his wife gone, he went on a spree which probably ended in his death, as a body answering his description was found floating in the Passaic river near the Triton boat house late yesterday afternoon.

Negro Shot by a Physician.

GREENVILLE, S. C., June 13.—Dr. Bennett, a physician of this county, shot a negro named R. Benson at his home yesterday. The shooting was done with a shotgun loaded with buckshot. Dr. Bennett was at his home and the negro came to see him. A quarrel arose and the negro started to leave, but turned and picked up a couple of rocks. Dr. Bennett raised his gun and fired. The charge of buckshot entered Benson's neck severing the jugular vein, causing instant death.

Ready for Battle.

BUFFALO, June 13.—The longshoremen on a strike at Tonawanda are ready to do battle with the "scabs." The twenty-fifth separate company assembled at their headquarters at 7 o'clock this morning to await the action of the sheriff, who will shortly arrive on a train from Lockport. The strikers have appealed to the state board of arbitration. The board has replied, stating they would soon be here. Officer Kingley, who was shot Saturday morning, is reported better.

Grand Prix Du Paris.

PARIS, June 13.—The Grand Prix du Paris, for a purse of $37,370, was run yesterday. The race was for three-year-olds and the course one mile, seven furlongs. The race was won by Ruell, with Courtis second and Chene Royal third. Ruell is a chestnut colt, by Enery out of Reveuse, and is owned by M. E. Blanc. W. I. Anson's Bucentaur, who was third at the derby, was far behind at the finish yesterday.

Electric Car Jumps the Track.

BALTIMORE, June 13.—An electric car jumped the track yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock and, turning over, threw about twenty passengers out on the ground. Christopher Benner had his skull fractured and died last night. Several others were more or less seriously injured. The breaks failing to respond on a steep grade was the cause of the accident.

Cask of Benzine Explodes.

ROME, June 13.—A cask of benzine was ignited accidentally by a match in a shop in Pavia yesterday. The cask exploded, the floor and ceiling collapsed and the building caught fire at once on the first and second floors. Four persons were killed and five were injured. The fire was extinguished shortly.

Railroad Traffic Delayed.

HELENA, Mon., June 13.—Railroad traffic is greatly delayed in northern, southern and western Montana, owing to the heavy rains of the last few days.

WILL BE WELL REPRESENTED.

News That Will Be Gratifying to the World's Fair Managers.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The Latin-American department of the world's Columbian exposition has just received from Guatemala letters and copies of the Official Gazette, containing the gratifying information that with the termination of the electoral contest, which resulted in the elevation to the presidency of that republic of General Barrios, the labors of the commission in Chicago of the representation of that country at Chicago have been resumed with renewed activity.

The new administration confirmed the appointments previously made, and added another member to the commission by appointing a gentleman of high character and wide influence, Senor Don Manuel Lemus, as its chairman. The president gave substantial proof of his interest in the exposition by supporting the request of the commission for more funds, and the legislative assembly increased the amount of the former appropriation of $120,000 to $200,000. Mr. Leon H. Rosenthal, residing at the capital of Guatemala, and an American citizen, has been honored by the designation of honorary member of the commission and the work is well under way.

The Jamaican exhibit at Chicago will be under the charge of Lieutenant Colonel J. C. Ward, the commissioner from that island. He informs the Latin American department that all of the plans have formulated and that it is intended to make the collection as complete as possible in every respect. Everything will be displayed from the fruit trade down to the most ordinary manufactured articles. Every district on the island is being carefully examined, and everything which can show its products and resources will be displayed.

The republic of Uruguay has appropriated $24,000 to be expended in preparing the exhibit to be sent by that country to the world's fair at Chicago. This money will be expended by the rural association of Uruguay, which has had charge of the previous exhibits sent by Uruguay.

AMERICAN REPUBLICS.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The bureau of American republics has received revised returns from the custom houses of Mexico by which it appears that the total custom house collections for the month of February last were $1,761,999.61.

The British Trade Journal of London, in a recent issue, contained the following editorial: "A letter from our Cuban correspondent serves to explain how it is that the exports of British coal to the Spanish West Indies have fallen from 90,000 tons in 1889 to 68,400 tons, 1890, and to 30,000 tons, to Havana, in 1891. It is another case of American competition, aided, in this instance, by the difficulty of obtaining return cargoes from Cuba to Great Britain.

"The United States now supply Cuba with about 150,000 tons of coal annually and there is every prospect of this trade increasing as the forests of the island become exhausted and the use of steam machinery on the sugar estates is developing. Alabama coal, especially, is securing a reputation in the Spanish West Indies, and the river and rail improvements of the southern states will undoubtedly create an important gulf trade. The new reciprocity policy, by which the United States are enabled to export Cuban sugar, will, of course, assist the American coal exporter even more effectively than the new lines of railway."

DIED WITH HIS BOOTS ON.

The "King of Rustlers" Killed by a Deputy Sheriff.

RED LODGE, Mon., June 13.—A letter from Arland, Wyo., says: Jack Bliss, "King of the Rustlers," was killed on the 4th inst. on the south fork of Stinking Water creek, by Deputy Sheriff Irey, of this place, and a posse.

Bliss was barricaded in a stone fortress twenty-three miles from a mining camp and supplied himself with food by pillaging miners' cabins. The officers took him unawares. Bliss was a notorious "rustler." Five weeks ago he was captured after a desperate fight, and escaped by knocking down and disarming the jailer.

Emory B. Beauchamp Dead.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 13.—Emory P. Beauchamp, consul at Aix-La-Chapelle, under President Grant, died Friday at the Central Indiana Hospital for the Insane. Mr. Beauchamp was a lawyer of Terre Haute, Ind., who was sent to Aix by President Grant in 1874. He passed the most brilliant consular examination in Washington. While on leave of absence he visited England and was invited by Lord Chief Justice Cockburn, who presided in the Tichborne trial, to a seat on the bench. He dug up the peerage record also, and asserted his right to the extinct title of Earl of Warwick, by which title he was afterwards known.

Fire in an Apartment House.

NEW YORK, June 13.—Fire broke out in a five-story apartment house on St. Mark's Place, this city, last night. The house contained seventeen families. Fortunately, nearly all were awake. When the fire was discovered a panic ensued. Three people were burned, but not seriously. The loss on the buildings and contents will aggregate $5,000. There were many narrow escapes, but all of the fifty occupants escaped. Robert Buner, the demoted husband of the housekeeper, caused the fire by throwing a lighted match on a bed.

Drown While Bathing.

ITHACA, N. Y., June 13.—Clinton S. Strong, of Cleveland, a member of the junior class of Cornell university, was drowned yesterday while bathing. The body was in the water five hours before it was recovered.

GIFT OF THE KING'S DAUGHTERS

Another Ship Loaded with Food Sent to the Starving Peasants of Russia.

NEW YORK, June 13.—The ship St. Leo sailed Saturday afternoon from Central lock, near Hamilton ferry, Brooklyn, with a cargo of breadstuffs, meats and infants' food, in addition to 1,500 tons of flour for the starving Russian peasants. The ship was decorated by the ladies of the different circles of the King's Daughters with flags and bunting, and here and there fluttered a streamer with the red cross, the emblem of the King's Daughters.

Before leaving Rev. Dr. Talmage held a short service on board, blessing the cargo, and asking for a safe journey across the ocean. Conspicuous in the gathering was Louis Loris, a Russian exile, who is in this country lecturing and sending the proceeds to his suffering countrymen. Dr. Talmage said that he and Dr. Klopsch would be in Russia when the St. Leo arrived and would personally superintend the distribution of the gifts. As the ship weighed anchor, the Tabernacle choir and others on the deck gave the vessel and its freight a God-speed in song.

The Russian Famine Over.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The department of state has been informed that the following ukase was issued by the Russian government on the 1st (13th) ult.:

"In view of the favorable results obtained from the measures taken by imperial order to assure food for the people and seed for the fields, it is judged useful, for the sake of the national commerce to authorize: First, the free exportation of maize, both by sea and the western continental frontier; second, the free exportation of the stock of oats in store at Archangel, Liban, Raval and Riga, the ministry of finance being charged to make proper arrangements in detail for the control of the customs institution."

This is understood to indicate that the famine is drawing to a close. It is believed that a ukase will be issued on July 1, possibly as early as June 1 (old style), permitting the exportation of all grain except rye. The authorities will be able to deal easily with what remains of the famine, and indications are that it will be unnecessary to send further contributions of grain.

TRAGEDY ON A BRIDGE.

A Colored Farm Hand Kills a Boatman.

TRENTON, June 13.—Yardley, Pa., was the scene of a murder at 2 o'clock yesterday morning. Charles J. McCarthy, a boatman, was the victim, and Isaac Robinson, a colored farm hand, the perpetrator of the crime. Both are young, unmarried men. They met on the Yardley bridge, which connects the Pennsylvania and New Jersey shores, and fell to quarreling.

McCarthy, it is said, seized Robinson by the collar and the latter drew a long, sharp knife, plunging it into McCarthy's breast. The latter wandered about after the assault in quest of a doctor, and at 8 o'clock was found dead in the entryway of Odd Fellows' hall. The knife had pierced McCarthy's lung. Robinson was arrested yesterday evening on the farm in Langhorne, where he is employed. A crowd of McCarthy's friends threatened to lynch him, and he had to be kept in a private residence before his removal to the Doylestown jail.

KILLED BY ITALIANS.

A Man Murdered and His Body Thrown on a Railroad Track.

MARTIN'S FERRY, O., June 13.—Henry Naylor, a well known citizen of Bridgeport, was murdered by Italians, while on his way home in the west end Saturday night. His body was then thrown on the Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling railroad track and cut to pieces.

A brick covered with blood was found near by, with which it is supposed they murdered him. Nine Italians were arrested at Bridgeport yesterday, two of whom killed him. There was an old grudge between Naylor and one of the Italians. All the latter were drunk. Threats of lynching are heard.

A Lynching Party Forming.

GUTHRIE, O. T., June 13.—This city is terribly excited and armed mobs are forming to lynch Tom Molly, who outraged Mrs. Charles Moore, and another negro who nearly killed James Gueken's eldest daughter and then committed an outrage on her mother.

Cholera in Afghanistan.

LONDON, June 13.—Dispatches from Calcutta say that the cholera is raging in Afghanistan. There is no hope of stopping its progress, as sanitation in the country is the worst possible.

A French Victory.

PARIS, June 13.—A dispatch sent out by the Havas agency says that the French have occupied Whydoh. The minister of marine, however, does not confirm the report.

Suge Twice Robbed.

HELENA, Mon., June 13.—The stage that runs between Great Falls and Billings was robbed twice last week. In each instance the mail and treasure boxes were taken, but it is not known how much money they contained. The government has offered a reward of $500 for the capture of the thieves.

Threaten to Strike.

MASSILLON, O., June 13.—The general manager of the Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling railroad has been notified by the trainmen of the road that unless their demands for the standard rate of wages—about 25 per cent. more than they get now—are acceded to at once a strike will take place.

Willing to Be Nominated.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 13.—Jerry Simpson has signified his willingness, and the People's party (Farmers' Alliance) of Kansas will nominate him for governor.

IRON AND STEEL-WORKERS.

Important Questions to Be Settled by the Amalgamated Association.

PITTSBURG, June 13.—There was no session Saturday of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers. The delegates participated in the reunion at Beaver. The day was pleasant, and fully 25,000 members, with their families, took part in the festivities.

Aside from the vexatious problem—the wage question—the Amalgamated association has a number of unusually important matters to act upon this year that have never before been brought up. The convention has completed its routine work and is now upon the important business prepared by the general officers, which embraces suggestions of such subordinate lodges as desired changes either in the constitution of the association or the scale of 1892-93.

Among the most important suggestions, and for the adoption of which strong efforts will be made, are: First, to have a two years' scale; second, to withdraw from the American Federation of Labor; third, that the price of boiling be fixed, this year at $6, instead of at $5.50 per ton, as at present, and, fourth, that Sunday work be avoided by beginning work on Monday morning instead of Sunday evening.

Typos Will Legislate This Week.

PHILADELPHIA, June 13.—The International Typographical union of the United States and Canada will hold its annual session in this city, commencing today, in the auditorium of the Drexel institute. About 225 delegates in all are in attendance.

Paving Cutters Still on a Strike.

NEW YORK, June 13.—The strike of the paving cutters' union is still unsettled. The indications are that it will remain so for some time to come. No new deserters from the union are reported, and no meetings are contemplated with the bosses.

WEALTH OF THE NATION.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—A recent bulletin of the census bureau makes the assessed valuation of the property of the United States $24,651,585,465. In 1880 the valuation for the purposes of taxation was $16,905,993,543; in 1870, $14,187,986,732; in 1860, $12,084,560,005. The true estimated value of the property of the country at these periods was $16,159,616,068 in 1860; $30,068,518,507 in 1870; $43,682,000,000 in 1880. It is fair to assume that the same relation exists between assessed and true valuation in 1890 as existed in 1880. When, in such states as Illinois, the state board of equalization declares that the assessed value was 50 per cent. in 1880, and only 25 per cent. in 1890, it is fair to assume that all round the general assessed value was in about the same ratio in 1890 as in 1880. Assuming that this is the case, the true valuation of the property of the country in 1890 was not less than $63,648,000,000, or more than $1,000 per capita, against $970 in 1880, $780 in 1870 and $514 in 1860. The increase in assessed valuation during the decade 1880-1890 was $7,748,591,922, or 45.84 per cent. During the same period the increase in population was 24.57 per cent. A nation which increases its wealth at the rate of 187 per cent. while its population is increasing 100 per cent. is not tending toward poverty, no matter who says so.

CHURCH FACTIONS AT WAR.

Poles Engage in a Riot and Many Black Eyes and Broken Heads Result.

CLEVELAND, June 13.—The house of the priest of the Polish Roman Catholic parish of St. Stanislaus, was attacked by a mob composed mostly of women, Saturday night. For the past four or five years the parish has been in charge of Rev. Father Kolaszewski, a young priest. For two years past ugly stories have been set afloat about his moral character by members of the flock, and a few days ago he removed to Syracuse, being succeeded by Rev. Father Rosinski, of Detroit.

Saturday evening a deputation of Kolaszewski's friends waited on him to warn him to leave the parish, and a crowd composed chiefly of women gathered in front of the house. The priest was firm, and at a signal the crowd charged on him. There were enemies of Rosinski in the crowd and a fight took place in the yard between them and the anti-Rosinski people. There were black eyes and broken heads and a few slight knife wounds, but in a few minutes the police arrived and scattered the belligerents. The priest's house is guarded by the police and no further trouble is feared.

Preparing for the Final Struggle.

NEW YORK, June 13.—A special to The Herald from Puerto Cabello, says that General Crespo has again been victorious in an engagement with the government troops. He is now marching upon Caracas at the head of the army. A state of terror exists at the capital and both forces are preparing for the final struggle.

Child Killed by an Electric Car.

ATLANTA, June 13.—Lena Sugarman, aged six years, was run over and instantly killed by an electric car yesterday evening. The car was running at a rapid speed and was crowded with ladies. The motorman has been arrested and will be held pending an investigation.

The Rails Spread.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., June 13.—By the spreading of a rail a freight engine on the Pittsburgh and Western railroad jumped the track just west of here yesterday and ran down the river, where it turned over and lies with the body of Engineer James Garghill under the wreck. Pat Ryan, who was riding in front of the engine, had a leg cut off and died soon after. Both are married. Three others are slightly injured.

MEMORIAL SERVICES

Held in All the Titusville Churches.

OVER 10,000 PEOPLE ATTEND.

Many Come from the Surrounding Towns—A Day of Rest for the Laborers, but the Work Renewed This Morning with an Increased Number of Men. Great Fears of a Pestilence.

TITUSVILLE, Pa., June 13.—Memorial services were held in all the churches yesterday and were largely attended. It is estimated that 10,000 people were in the city from the neighboring towns of Warren, Oil City, Corry, Erie and the small villages who thronged the fire swept district all day.

Work in the ruins was suspended yesterday to give the exhausted laborers an opportunity for rest and because the force was too small to continue with new men. This action of the council is greatly criticised, and with good reason, as there are many large stench holes in which the rotting remains of dogs, horses and chickens fill the air with poisonous vapors. Many families have left their homes for fear a pestilence may strike them down. The intense heat which prevails is adding greatly to this danger.

Another body, blackened by disinfection, was taken from the ruins Saturday from the same locality which has already yielded four corpses. It was that of Bert Osmer, aged nine years, and was found back of Breen's, on Mechanic street. The scene at the morgue, when the gray-haired old father identified the remains, was heartrending. He alone of his family survives this terrible disaster. The bodies of his wife and other son were taken from the ruins early in the week. The burial took place immediately at Woodlawn cemetery.

The interment of bodies is made as quickly as possible. Hardly is time taken to properly conduct the services at the grave so great is the fear of the spread of pestilence. The remains of a woman were also found near the National refinery, but decomposition prevented identification. A terrible stench comes from many localities in the flooded and fire-swept district and is a pretty sure indication that more bodies lie hidden from sight. Great swarms of flies and other insects have led the workmen in many instances to where a body was wedged under a heap of wreckage or to the discovery of a hand or foot burned away from the remains of some victim of the fire. A much larger force of men were put to work this morning. The city authorities realize that no time is to be wasted in clearing away the debris lest pestilence follow. At least 500 men and 200 teams comprise the force.

Fifty insurance agents are here from Oil City, and will make a speedy adjustment of the losses. Aid in the shape of money and clothes is coming in rapidly. Ten thousand dollars is the amount received Saturday. A large lot of provisions and clothing also arrived and was transferred to the City hall, where it was distributed; yet the demand exceeds the supply.

Two Bodies Found Near Oil City.

OIL CITY, Pa., June 13.—Two bodies were found Saturday, one at Beaverton and the other at Emlenton. The former is supposed to be James White and the latter Ambrose Moran. This brings the list of known dead at Oil City to fifty-four and at Titusville sixty-five. A number of persons are still missing. Benjamin Lee, secretary of the state board of health, visited the stricken district yesterday, and expressed himself as well pleased with the sanitary arrangements.

PASSENGER TRAINS COLLIDE.

Failure of the Airbrakes Causes an Accident.

NEW YORK, June 13.—Quite a serious collision occurred yesterday evening between two passenger trains on the Staten Island rapid transit railroad at Stapleton, S. I. A train bound for South Beach and crowded with pleasure seekers stopped at the station at Stapleton.

On account of the immense number of passengers on the train there was some delay and the train had been there about three minutes when the regular Tottenville passenger train came along, the locomotive of which crashed into the rear of the South Beach train. Most of the passengers were thrown down by the shock and many received cuts and bruises. The Tottenville train was running at about the rate of ten miles an hour and did not do very much damage either to itself or the excursion train. After the crash there was quite a panic among the excursionists on the South Beach train and a number of women and children were thrown down and trampled upon before it could be quelled. No one, however, was seriously injured either by the crash or the panic. The failure of the air brakes on the Tottenville train to work caused the accident.

Japanese Immigrating.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—The steamship Gaelic arrived here last evening, twenty-one days from Hong Kong via Yokohama. She reports that over 10,000 immigrants will leave June 7 for Hawaii. A large number of Japanese also contemplate going to the United States on May 14. The Japanese house of representatives passed a resolution declaring want of confidence in the government, prolonging the diet for a week.

The Almy Case to Be Heard.

CONCORD, N. H., June 13.—A special session of the full bench of the supreme court is to be held here July 11, when oral arguments will be made in the Almy murder case.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

Election, November, 1892.

For Circuit Clerk,
ISAAC WOODWARD.
For Sheriff,
J. C. JEFFERSON.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

A TELEGRAM from Indianapolis claims that the Democratic National Committee has handed over the press arrangements for the approaching National convention to a lot of Republicans. The charge should be investigated. If anything of the kind has been done, it should be known. The party would then soon settle with the committee.

The Cincinnati Enquirer calls attention to the fact that "from the twenty Democratic States which he can not carry and six Territories which cast no electoral vote President Harrison received 343 of the 535 votes by which he was nominated, leaving him but 192 votes in the States the Republicans have a reasonable hope to carry." This is calculated to make the Blaine crowd howl.

Poor Governor McKinley. He no doubt bitterly regrets now that he ever went near the Minneapolis convention. As Chairman of that meeting he displayed his ignorance of parliamentary law. But that's not the worst of it. He professed to be a warm advocate of Harrison, and yet he was scheming to get the nomination himself. This is an open secret now, and the Harrison crowd are jumping on him from every side. The Governor played right into the hands of his old enemy Foraker.

HERE'S the way the Boston Globe views the Republican ticket: "If the Democrats could have named the Republican candidate themselves, with a view strictly to increase their own chances of sweeping the country next November, they could hardly have done better. It is a nomination that will chill the Republican masses to the marrow, divide the councils of their leaders, leave many wounds that can not be closed and sores that can not be healed, and send them into the campaign with absolutely no spirit and no available ammunition except the dull and colorless record of an administration which has not been distinguished by a single achievement that appeals to the imagination or arouses the enthusiasm of the Nation. The Chicago convention has had its task made much easier for it by the action taken at Minneapolis."

Where's the Need of Protection?

An exchange calls attention to the remarkable fact that "the only exports from the United States that have materially increased in volume and value, except wheat and corn, since the McKinley tariff went into operation are the manufactures of iron and steel. These are the manufactures, too, that next to woolen fabrics are covered with the heaviest protective duties. Yet, while thus heavily protected at home, they are able to compete successfully with the rival manufactures of Europe in all the open and free markets of the world.

"If farm implements of every description, steam engines, saws and tools and other products of the skill and industry of American workers in iron and steel defy competition in foreign lands by reason of their superiority, why should they be hedged about by enormous protective duties in the home market? Is this because it is feared by legislative wisdom that American consumers are not as good judges of the qualities of iron and steel products as are the consumers of Australia, Canada and Mexico, and that if the duties should be reduced the markets of this country would be "flooded" with European manufactures of inferior workmanship? If this be not the reason, there can be no other motive for this policy than the spoliation of the masses of the American people for the profit of a favored few.

The Office-holders Nominated Him

One hundred and thirty of the delegates to the late Republican National convention at Minneapolis are office-holders, and it is safe to wager that every mother's son of them voted for President Harrison's renomination. He polled 535 on the first ballot and now heads the ticket. Without the 130 office-holding delegates, he would have lacked nearly fifty votes of the nomination. You can put him down as the office-holders' candidate.

Wolcott, the brilliant Senator from Colorado, referred to this matter in his remarks before the convention, and gave the administration a terrible scolding. He said:

"I hold in my hand, Mr. Chairman, a list of 130 odd officers-holders who are delegates to this convention, nine-tenths of whom live in States where there is a hopeless Democratic majority. The trouble in this committee as to the delegates comes not from those men, but comes likewise like a pressure of between two and three hundred Government officer-holders who swarm the corridors of the hotels and fill these galleries and haunt the delegates who ought to be in Washington or elsewhere attending to their business. [Cheers and a cry of 'sit down!']

"Mr. Wolcott: 'I won't sit down. [Cheers.] We who are Republicans from Republican States would like to have a little voice in naming a candidate for the Presidency. [Cheers.] Possibly the office-holders may name him, but we from Republican States do ask the office-holding contingent who are bringing a solid South against us to at least conduct their side of the case in common decency and common honor, so that we won't be ashamed to vote the ticket.' [Prolonged cheers and applause.

EX-GOVERNOR FORAKER, of Ohio, one of the Blaine leaders at the Minneapolis convention, says: "Of course, we are all for Harrison now," but the rest of Mr. Foraker's talk doesn't sound much like he is very enthusiastic over the ticket. He says: "I never knew a convention so numerously attended and so dominated as this one was by the office-holding class. Fully one-sixth of the members were appointees of President Harrison, and it is a modest estimate to say there were 2,500 other office-holders of various grades and degrees in Minneapolis and in the galleries electioneering and making sentiment for the nomination that was made. This was not only in violation of Civil Service, but of common decency." It doesn't look like the rank and file, especially the Blaine admirers, are going to do much shouting for the office-holders' ticket.

River News.

The Jos. B. Williams, the biggest towboat on the Ohio, passed up for Pittsburgh this morning.

The river has not varied either way more than four or five feet from the present stage during the past six or eight weeks. It is now falling.

The towboat J. P. Jackson arrived at New Orleans from Pittsburgh last week with five model barges, and containing 105,777 bundles of cotton ties, 9,620 kegs of nails and sixty tons of other manufactured iron. Going down the Jackson dropped one barge at Memphis containing 52,000 bundles of ties; two barges at Vicksburg, loaded with 64,000 bundles of ties; two boats of coal at Angola plantation, and four boats of coal at Bayou Sara.

Western Union's Wonderful Work.

The Associated Press-Western Union Telegraph bulletin service for the last day of the Minneapolis convention and especially the announcement of the renomination of Harrison for the Presidency of the United States was phenomenal, and probably has never before been excelled. The bulletins announcing the nomination were received and posted at all telegraph points in America within less than five minutes, most of them within two minutes. The far-off Pacific coast knew the result within two minutes after the facts were determined, and even quicker was the service in the East, New York having received the news inside of sixty seconds.

Equally phenomenal was the speed of transmission across the ocean, the bulletin of President Harrison's renomination taking only one and one-half minutes to reach London.

Validity of County Levy.

In reversing the case of Wilson, receiver, versus Linville, &c., taken up from Robertson County the Court of Appeals says:

"First—A county levy bond is valid if executed by the Sheriff during the term at which the levy is imposed, although executed before the imposition of the levy. "Second—The Court of Claims may extend its term by adjourning over to a future time. Therefore, where the court met in October, and after making certain allowances adjourned to meet again in February, when it met and made a levy, there was a continuous term, and a levy bond taken by the County Judge in December is valid."

Death of William J. Havens

Mr. William J. Havens, father of Mr. Will Havens of the Aberdeen Gretna Green, died Saturday afternoon at the home of the family in Dover. The remains were buried Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Rev. W. W. Hall conducting the funeral services. The K. of P. and I. O. O. F. lodges of Ripley went down and had charge of the burial services. Deceased held membership in these orders at Covington, and a delegation was up to the funeral. His death was the result of an attack of the grip which he took last November.

Deceased was in his sixty-fourth year. He was born in Fleming County, and leaves a wife and two children, Clarence Havens, of Dover, and Will Havens, of Aberdeen.

Three brothers and two sisters survive him—Captain Ezena and Pete Havens, of Missouri; Anderson Havens, of Winchester, O.; Mrs. A. Clarke, of Newport, and Mrs. Coulter, of Frankfort.

Deceased was one of the best known river engineers on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, having made that the business of his life. He was a good man in all the noble walks of life, and was liked and esteemed by all.

MAYS LICK.

There has been too much rain for the wheat. The crop of spring chickens is short as yet and high.

Miss Mary Myall has returned from Georgetown.

The farmers are busy getting ready for the wheat harvest.

It rained every day but one last week and some of the storms were hard ones.

All of our young ladies, who have been attending school, have returned home.

The gardens never looked better. All kinds of vegetation growing and doing well.

William Bruin, colored, had a valuable horse shot and killed a few days since by some unknown person.

Elder F. M. Tinder, who has been holding a meeting in Prestonsburg, returned home last Friday. Reports having a good meeting.

William Williams, colored, who is employed by Willie Gooding at Cynthiaana, came over a few days ago to visit his mother and pay up his old debts, which speaks well for him.

For the Farmer.

How few stockmen know the meaning of the word "rigging?" It means a horse half-gelded. Many itinerant gelders have for years made the farmers believe they had a so-called "rigging" when the gland was simply in the inguinal canal, the cryptochid, in an undeveloped animal always, arising from the same cause. The gelders make the farmer believe they have accomplished a great feat, when it is not more trouble to operate than normal, charge him for an operation that few can d o, claiming merit when none is due.

There are four kinds of cryptochids, two of which any gelder can take, but the one high in the inner ring and the abdominal they cannot take. It is a difficult operation and no more than 60 per cent. of the latter recover, dying of peritonitis about the fourth day. However such animals are useless and require more attention than an entire horse, besides they are always dangerous.

I venture to say that but few men have seen an abdominal cryptochid and habitually discourage the interference simply because they can't do the work. The people of this community will, it seems, continue to be humbugged by strangers. They should realize if a man is of any value he will find plenty to do at home.

Why (may I ask) do not the good people of Maysville organize a S. P. C. A. and look to the cruel treatment of the horses and mules each day on the streets? Every other city has one.

E. P. WHEELER, Vet. Surgeon.

THE MARKETS.

GROCERIES AND COUNTRY PRODUCE.
CINCINNATI TOBACCO MARKET.
[Friday.]

The "breaks" were small, being 19 hds of old and 147 of new, making 166 hds, which was 13 in excess of closing sale day last week.

The offerings were too small to create much competition in bidding; and a very quiet but steady feeling prevailed.

Of the 19 hds (old) 2 sold from $5.10 to $5.35, 11 from $6.90 to $7.60, 4 from $8 to $9.05, 2 from $10 to $10.50.

Of the 137 hds (new) 1 sold at $1.18 from $1.20 to $1.95, 65 from $6 to $7.95, 20 from $8 to $9.80, 12 from $10 to $11.75, 6 from $12.50 to $14.75, 7 from $15.75 to $19, 2 from $21 to $23, 1 at $26.25.

IN the Legislature Saturday the House passed the Election bill and returned it to the Senate for concurrence in some amendments. As it now stands it leaves the calling of primary elections entirely with the discretion of the Executive Committee.

REV. NEWTON W. DARLINGTON, the venerable Methodist minister living at West Union, was returning to his home from Manchester Friday afternoon when his horse became frightened and threw him down a steep embankment. His injuries are internal, and it is feared may prove fatal. He was pastor of the Third street M. E. Church, this city, years ago, and conducted the services there not long since.

AT Lexington Saturday Chief of Police Letcher Lusby was indicted by the grand jury for malfeasance in office on account of not arresting the proprietors of the pool rooms who do business contrary to a city ordinance. The grand jury has tried every way to force the pool-rooms out of business, but so far have failed. They also indicted the Chief of Police for malfeasance because he refrained from arresting a drunken Councilman on the street a few months ago. If convicted Chief Lusby will lose his office and be subjected to a fine and imprisonment.

THE National Woman's Board of Missions of the M. E. Church, South, has elected Mrs. S. C. Truehart, of Kentucky, Secretary. Mrs. F. A. Butler was elected editor of the Woman's Missionary Advocate for the ensuing year, while Miss Anna M. Barnes, of Duluth, Ga., was elected by acclamation as the editor of the Little Worker, which position she has previously filled. The Board pledged itself to raise $10,000 for mission work within the next year. The annual report of the Scarrett Bible Society was read. Each missionary, it was decided, shall give a pledge to devote five years to the work. The Board will hold its next meeting in Kansas City, and San Francisco.

THE threatened epidemic of small-pox has called forth from Dr. F. W. Reilly, Secretary of the Illinois State Board of Health, a proclamation enjoining all municipal authorities and local Boards of Health the urgent necessity of steps to secure the vaccination of all over whom they have authority. The proclamation also appeals to the press to help in having the ideas it contains carried out. In enforcing the claim for co-operation with the State Board, it adds: "Seven cases of small-pox in one town, upward of eighty cases in Ohio and West Virginia towns, and recent cases in Michigan and other neighboring States, as well as two recent cases in Chicago, clearly indicates that this loathsome disease again threatens Illinois after ten years of almost complete freedom from its ravages. The last epidemic in Illinois resulted in panic and quarantine, interrupted travel, traffic and business, closed schools and courts, caused 8,856 cases, 2,978 deaths and involved a money loss of nearly $7,500,000."

COLONEL POLK DEAD.

President of the National Farmers' Alliance.

HE DIES IN WASHINGTON CITY.

He Leaves a Wife and Three Children at Raleigh, Where His Body Was Taken and Buried.

Biographical.

Colonel Leonidas L. Polk was fifty-three years of age, but looked several years younger. He was born in Anson county, N. C., and was a descendant of the Mecklenburg family of Polks, of which Colonels Thomas and William Polk, of revolutionary fame, and President James Polk, were illustrious sons.

Colonel Polk was in, the truest sense of that much abused phrase, a self made man. Left at the age of fourteen an orphan, he began the struggle of life single handed. Reared on a farm, his inclinations naturally followed this bent, and he adopted farming as a profession, which he prosecuted with success until called to another sphere.

He was married at twenty-one, and was soon after nominated and elected to the lower house of the state legislature, receiving a flattering vote. He served the regular and two extra sessions, in 1860 and 1861, and then volunteered as a private in the Confederate service, declining the captaincy of a company. He served in the Twenty-fifth and Forty-third North Carolina regiments until late in 1864, when his comrades in the army nominated him as the "army candidate," and elected him again to the general assembly. The following year he was put forward in opposition to his earnest protests, and elected to the state constitutional convention called by President Johnson.

In 1867 he was elected commissioner of agriculture, and had the responsible and important task of organizing a department of agriculture, the establishment of which he had for many years strenuously advocated. In 1880 he resigned his position and entered upon business pursuits.

In 1886 he began the publication of The Progressive Farmer, and with it began the organization of farmers' clubs, and when in 1887 he espoused the cause of the Farmers' Alliance, he had nearly organized 500 clubs in his state. Another important move Colonel Polk's paper exerted itself in behalf of was the establishment of a state agricultural and mechanical college, advocating the restoration of the land scrip fund to that purpose, which had up to that time been applied to the state university.

The agitation met considerable opposition from influential quarters, but his plans were finally adopted, and the college is today an established reality and an acknowledged ornament to the state of North Carolina.

In 1887 Colonel Polk was elected state secretary of the Farmers' Alliance, to which position he has been twice re-elected. In the national Alliance convention of 1887 he was unanimously chosen first vice president of that great order, by which he was later honored with its highest office.

The Interstate Farmers' association, composed of farmers in the cotton states, was organized at Atlanta in 1887, and the subject of this sketch was chosen president. At two subsequent annual conventions he was re-elected to that position.

Colonel Polk's home was at Raleigh, where he leaves a wife and three children.

Funeral Services at Raleigh.

RALEIGH, June 13.—The train bearing the body of President Polk did not arrive here until 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. It was met at the depot by hundreds of people. The procession was formed and the body was escorted to the First Baptist church, of which Mr. Polk was a communicant. By 4 o'clock the church was packed, the audience numbering at least a thousand. Among those present were Governor Holt and all the state officers, members of the supreme court, officers of the state Alliance and Grand Sire Buissee, of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows.

The services were conducted by Rev. Drs. J. W. Carter, T. E. Skinner and J. J. Hall. The face of the dead was exposed and after the choir had sung "Abide With Me," the entire audience passed in single file by the casket and viewed the body. The casket was taken into and out of church by the pallbearers, who came from Washington and who, with ladies, who also came, were given seats in front. At the conclusion of the services, the Washington party returned to the train and left for that city.

Pallbearers selected here then took charge of the remains, which were taken to Oakwood cemetery. There was a great assemblage of people at the cemetery. A short address was made by Rev. Dr. Carter, Rev. Dr. Hall offered prayer and Rev. Dr. Skinner pronounced benediction. There were no Alliance services at the grave. Remarkably few Alliance men were present as they did not have time to reach here.

Mrs. Polk and her three daughters and son-in-law were the chief mourners. Associate Editor Ramsey and the composers of Polk's paper, Progressive Farmer, were present. The funeral was one of the largest ever known here and a marked respect was paid to his memory.

Polk's Probable Successor.

OMAHA, June 13.—The news of the death of L. L. Polk, president of the Farmers' Alliance, has caused much speculation among Alliance men. A new plan has developed by which it is proposed to nominate United States Senator William M. Stewart, of Nevada, for president, and Thomas E. Watson, representative in congress from Georgia for vice president. It is said that General Weaver, who has been mentioned for the first place, is strongly inclined to favor this ticket.

Agricultural Bulletin.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The agricultural department has issued a bulletin giving a record of experiments in the use of alcohol in the manufacture of sugar from sorghum during the year 1891. The experiments were conducted under the direction of H. W. Wiley, chemist. The bulletin states that this method would work admirably and the only objection to it is in respect to the great amount of alcohol which would be required. For this reason, it is said, it will never be adopted in practice unless alcohol should become very much cheaper than it ever has been in the markets of the world.

Murder Over a Crap Game.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon George Gales was stabbed and bled to death in the public streets. His slayer, Robert Simmons, went to police headquarters and surrendered himself. The affray took place at a game of Sunday craps. Both parties are negroes. This is the third murder that has occurred in this city since Sunday last and in every case the slayer has put in a plea of self-defense.

Three Electric Car Passengers Mangled.

BELLAIRE, O., June 13.—At a late hour Saturday night an electric car between Bellaire and Wheeling was struck at a crossing by a Baltimore and Ohio engine at Benwood, W. Va. It was crowded with passengers. Miss Kate Fitzpatrick and Mrs. Charles Miller were killed and Joseph Emsheimer fatally injured. All were of Wheeling. The car was completely demolished.

Scalped by Osage Indians.

GUTHRIE, O. T., June 13.—More trouble is being had with the Osage Indians. The deputy marshals who went out to arrest them for recent outrages perpetrated on Charles McBride, have been driven off the reservation. A party of Indians captured a man traveling alone and after holding a war dance around him, tore off his scalp.

Depew for Secretary of State.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—It is expected that the vacancy in the cabinet caused by the resignation of Mr. Blaine will be filled this week, and the general impression in Washington is that the president will tender the appointment to Mr. Chauncey M. Depew, of New York.

Paper Mills Burned.

HARTFORD CITY, Ind., June 13.—The entire plant of the Crescent paper mills, one of the largest in Indiana, was entirely destroyed by fire at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. The works were the property of Fort Wayne parties. Loss, $88,000; insurance, $56,000.

Burned Groceries.

CLEVELAND, June 13.—A fire in the W. P. Southworth company's wholesale and retail grocery, 114 to 118 Ontario street, yesterday caused a loss of about $50,000, fully covered by insurance.

Not in the Purchase.

Many New England farms are known to the people in the surrounding country by the names of former owners, who perhaps moved away or died many years ago. Martin Baker came from "York state" to live on a fine old Vermont farm.

The farm had belonged to his cousin, another Baker, and the present owner was cultivating it, as he said, "to the very top of the notch."

He painted a sign for the barn, which announced to all beholders that this was "Mountain View Farm," but to his disgust he heard his new property spoken of on every hand as "th' old Batchelor place."

His patience was greatly tried by this fact, and at last he broke out in a rage one day when a farmer who lived a short distance from him was explaining to a newcomer that he, Martin Baker, was a man who was "fixin up th' old Batchelor place an' callated t' hev it known th' kentry round."

"I ain't calculatin to have it known as the 'Batchelor place,' though, I can tell you!" blazed Martin Baker, turning upon his petrified neighbor.

"Haven't I lived on the place over a year now? Didn't I buy it and pay hard cash for it? Didn't I buy the stock, and the pasture land, and the wood lots, and the meadows, and everything that ever belonged to Batchelor? My cousin didn't own all the land, but I do. I've bought every inch of it and paid for it. What is there I ain't done in the buyin line in regard to that farm, and why don't the folks call it by the name I've given it? It mads me!"

"I see it doos; I see it doos," replied the old farmer calmly. "Ye see, friend Baker, ther's jest one way ye've over speculated a grain. Ye ain't bought all of us old folks' recollections; an' I'm afeard ye won't be able to fr a year or so, t' put a low figger on it. I callate it's one o' them few cases wher time shows for more'n money!"
